

SaiTech is an established business specializing in Information Technologies with extensive experience in network services, telecommunications, software systems, records management, document imaging, and forms management, IT Security, computer support. Since 1997, we have been providing engineering and technical support services in the IT functional disciplines. We are supporting both Government and Commercial industry. Satisfied clients and successful high-profile projects reflect SaiTech's position as a leader in the industry.

Licenses/Certifications:

©©Woman Owned

©©Small Disadvantaged Business

Products and Services:

- Engineering
- Consulting
- Operations
- Support
- Telecommunications
- Information Management
- Information Systems
- Systems Engineering & Integration
- Operations & Maintenance
- Consulting Support
- IT Security Support
- Electronic Content and Document Management
- Documentation and Repository Services
- Enterprise Architecture, Systems Integration
- Applications Design and Development
- Research and Develop
- Emerging IT Technologies

SaiTech is an established, woman-owned Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB) specializing in Information Technologies with extensive experience in network services, telecommunications, software systems, records management, document imaging, and forms management, IT Security, computer support. Since 1997, we have been providing engineering and technical support services in the IT functional disciplines. We are supporting both Government and Commercial industry.

Contact:

Ted Strain

Manager of Southeast Operations

Building 1103 Room 109B

Stennis Space Center, MS 39529-6000

Mobile: (228) 363-0080

Email: tstrain@saitech-hsv.com

Web: www.saitech-hsv.com

