

Since August 28, 2007, Jacobs Technology Inc. has served as prime contractor to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration for facility operations and services at the John C. Stennis Space Center (SSC), near Bay St. Louis, Mississippi. In performing these services under its prime contract, Jacobs serves NASA and the various resident agencies located at SSC.

It is Jacobs' policy to promote maximum participation of Small Business in supplying materials and services required in our SSC operation.

The following are examples of services purchased by Jacobs:

- Construction/General Contracting
- Electrical
- Roofing
- Welding
- Crane Services
- Tank Cleaning
- Clearing & Grubbing
- Site Development
- Consulting
- Elevator Maintenance
- Building Modifications
- HVAC
- Storm Drains/Culverts
- Asbestos Abatement
- Architectural & Engineering
- Potable Water System Repairs
- Fencing
- Underwater Services/Inspection
- Misc. Service/Maintenance Requirements

The following are examples of materials or products purchased by Jacobs:

- Automotive Parts
- Chemicals
- Computers and Peripherals
- Food Service Supplies
- Consulting Services
- Electronic Components
- HVAC equipment
- Hardware
- Insulation
- Janitorial Services Supplies
- Lumber
- Office Supplies
- Paper Supplies
- Pipes/Valves/Fittings