

STENNIS BUSINESS CONSORTIUM
QUARTERLY MEETING
September 09, 2014

1. Charlie Beasley, MSET. General Welcome
2. Robert Watts, NASA Stennis Small Business Specialist, Procurement and Acquisition Update
3. Ed Faulkner, Jim Connor, and Bruce Emerson, SAIC, National Center for Critical Information Processing and Storage (NCCIPS) and other SAIC initiatives
4. Russell Aldrich, CACI Projects and Opportunities for Small Businesses
5. Ashley Edwards, Hancock County Port & Harbor Commission
6. Tabisa Kalisa, NASA Office of Small Business Programs
7. Charlie Beasley, Stennis Industry Days Update and Laurie Jugan, SBC Team-member Achievement Recognition (STAR) Awards
8. Announcements
  - a. Next meeting – Tuesday, Nov 18, Building 1200 auditorium
  - b. NASA Historically Black Colleges & Universities and Minority -Serving Institutions Partnership Meeting – September 17, Huntsville
  - c. New Orleans Bioinnovation Center (NOBIC) SBIR/STTR training and Gulf Coast Intellectual Property Association (GCIPA) General Meeting, October 28-30, New Orleans

Stennis Business Consortium Mission

The mission of the Stennis Business Consortium is to provide a mechanism for federal and state agencies, local institutions, and businesses to exchange information on small business goals, needed and emerging technologies, upcoming procurement requirements and opportunities, and issues dealing with existing procurement regulations. This is accomplished through regular meetings where specific information is exchanged based on funding cycles, forecasts of small business needs, as well as inquiries from small businesses.