

STENNIS BUSINESS CONSORTIUM
QUARTERLY MEETING
March 31, 2015
AGENDA

Welcome: Laurie Jugan, Mississippi Enterprise for Technology (MSET)

Featured Speakers

1. Joe Graben, Marine Industries Science & Technology (MIST) Cluster Update
2. Juli Chytka, Small Business Specialist, Supervisor of Shipbuilding (SUPSHIP)
3. Alizabeth Lee, Naval Oceanographic Office (NAVOCEANO)
4. Trina Street, NASA Shared Services Center (NSSC)
5. Tony Goretski, NASA-Stennis
6. Jason Edge, NASA's Multiple Award Construction Contracts (MACC)

Announcements and Upcoming Events:

MIST Quarterly Small Business Summit: 27 April 2015 in conjunction with SWIFT Tour, USM's Gulfpark Campus, Gulfport, MS. Visit www.mistcluster.org or www.mset.org under Events for more information.

Oceans In Action Workshop. Save the Date – August 20, 2015. StenniSphere auditorium and Millennium Hall. Featuring presentations from Stennis Federal agencies and local topical organizations.

Mission Statement: Stennis Business Consortium

The mission of the Stennis Business Consortium is to provide a mechanism for federal and state agencies, local institutions, and businesses to exchange information on small business goals, needed and emerging technologies, upcoming procurement requirements and opportunities, and issues dealing with existing procurement regulations. This is accomplished through regular meetings where specific information is exchanged based on funding cycles, forecasts of small business needs, as well as inquiries from small businesses.